CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder shall be the purchaser, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders the lot to be put up again and re-sold at the discretion of the Auctioneers.

2.—No bid after the first shall be made of less than 1/- more than the preceding offer, or if above £5 less than 2/6 than the preceding offer, and so on in proportion.

3.—The purchaser shall give his or her name and address, and also pay a deposit of 5/- in the £1, such deposit to apply to all other lots purchased by the depositor in the present sale. Any purchaser may be required to pay the whole of the purchase money immediately after the fall of the hammer if considered necessary by the Auctioneers.

4.—The lots must be cleared with all faults, imperfections or errors of description, at the purchaser's risk and expense (whether the purchase money or any part thereof be paid or not) the day after the sale; in default, Messrs. E. Fryett & Company are not to be held responsible if any lots are lost, damaged or destroyed. Auctioneers neither consider themselves answerable for the correct description of any lot nor do they guarantee the maker.

5.—Any purchaser who shall neglect to pay for and take away any lots he or she may have purchased within one day after the sale (they not having been sold again—see Condition 6) shall pay in addition to the purchase money the sum of one shilling per week for each lot for warehouse room, and also at the rate of £5 per cent. per annum interest on the purchase money, to be reckoned from this day.

6.—On failure of compliance with any of the above conditions, the money deposited shall be forfeited, and the lots which shall remain uncleared shall be sold by public or private sale, without notice to the purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) by such second sale together with all charges attending the same, shall be made good by the defaulters at the present sale.

The Auctioneers act only as Agents for the Vendor or Vendors, and shall not be considered personally responsible for any default on the part of any purchaser.

The only manner in which goods can be cleared, is by an order issued from the office, no other clearance is allowed or recognised.

No goods can be delivered at time of sales, unless paid for at the fall of the hammer.

Commissions faithfully executed.
